

Laundering Benghazi

On the campaign trail, Biden aggressively chants GM is alive and Osama Bin Laden is Dead. AlQaeda launches attacks on Embassies and Consulates throughout the Muslim world, promising to avenge the great prophet. That sounds similar to a declaration of war.

The President and Cabinet may have watched the Benghazi attack live. No attempt was made to help Ambassador Stevens; instead, stand-down orders were issued. This event got buried to protect Obama's re-election hopes. Stevens was abandoned. Let's get that made up video exercising Freedom of Speech into the public domain ASAP so we can condemn it! And, make sure the video maker is referred to as Egyptian-American and not Moslem.

Nobody died in Watergate or the Lewinski scandal. Nixon resigned. Clinton was impeached in the House. U.S. Ambassador Stevens is Dead, and Obama is more concerned about the pending election.

What comforts you more?

Obama ignoring and covering up intelligence.

Or, Obama's claim of not having intelligence.
